NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

- | | |
| 1 | On November 7, 2019, Hartwell tested positive for morphine, fentanyl and tramadol at her treatment program, Integrity House, which was confirmed by laboratory testing.

On November 13, 2019, Hartwell tested positive for opiates and fentanyl at the Probation Office and admitted to using heroin the previous week. She signed a Drug Admission form on this date.

The Probation Office does not believe Hartwell has been completely forthcoming about her use, as opiates are typically undetectable in a urine sample 48 hours after use. |

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The probation office along with her current treatment counselor at Integrity House in Newark, New Jersey recommended a higher level of substance abuse treatment. Hartwell was referred to a long-term inpatient substance abuse treatment program, New Hope Behavioral in Marlboro, New Jersey. She will enter the detoxification center at New Hope today. The probation office will also explore possible medication assisted treatment, specifically Vivitrol and transitional sober-living housing as an aftercare treatment plan. Hartwell is agreeable to this treatment plan.

Respectfully submitted,

By: Dana Hafner
Senior U.S. Probation Officer
